A BUILDING ASSOCIATION.

Would It Not Be a Good Thing For Many Greensboro People?

In building a city it is essential that all good citizens be encouraged to buy, to own and improve their own homes. Isn't this true? Yes, you will answer. Very well; but how and in what manner can they be best encouraged? We submit that what we deem the most available plan, is one that is being worked successfully in many cities and towns— a home building association.

Without entering into an argument to prove the beneficial results of the plan, let us call to your attention the work of the John B. Stetson Building and Loan Association in Philadelphia. It was incorporated in January, 1880. Since that time 18 series of stock have been issued, of which seven have matured and been paid, the seventh having been paid off on the 9th day of June. The eighteenth series was issued in January 1898, with subscriptions for 450 shares. There are now in existence 2,905 shares of stock, all of which are held by employees of the John B. Stetson company.

The largest number of shares ever issued in any one series was 517, and of that series 215 shares were borrowed. The present assets of the association amount to $235,255.74. The undivided profits at the end of last year were almost $54,000.

This association was formed with the sole object of helping the employees in owning their own homes, and to encourage them in saving money for that purpose, as well as for the benefit of their families. Since its foundation it has been extremely successful, and has never been compelled to foreclose a mortgage nor to take the property because interest had not been paid on the loans. The employees feel that it is of the greatest possible benefit to themselves.

What has been done as above described in Philadelphia, can be done with equal success in Greensboro, with honest effort and competent management. There are numbers of good people here ready to take hold of the plan when the opportunity is offered. What will we do about it?

OUR CHURCH RECORD.

Notes on The Special Historical Issue Number One.

As mentioned in these columns on yesterday the special historical issue of Our Church Record has been sent out. It is replete with facts and figures with reference to the origin of that paper and its handsome and commodious home, the M. P. Publishing House building, which is a monument to the industry of the Grace church members who conceived the idea of its erection, as well as an ornament to the city of Greensboro.

This edition of Our Church Record is splendidly illustrated with pictures of the publishing house, of several different churches in the city and other parts of the state, of the interior of the editor's office, composing room, Dr. Johnson's office, Workman's furniture store, State Normal and Industrial college, Greensboro Female college, Greensboro National Bank, South Greensboro graded school, the McAdoo House, Odell Hardware company's building, several of our lumber mills, the Keeley Institute and a number of handsome residences.

Aside from church history, this special edition of the Record is valuable as regards the history of Greensboro. It goes back to the formation of Guilford county in 1770, and tells of the old court house out where the decisive battle of the revolution was fought and of the subsequent location of the court house at this place, which is the exact geographical center of the county.

It is a valuable and interesting publication and the efforts of Editor McCulloch and Mr. J. Norman Wills in its preparation should, and no doubt will be, duly appreciated. Mr. McCulloch is a practical printer, as well as a good editor and to him is due the credit of the attractive and convenient arrangement of the paper, while Mr. Wills rendered valuable assistance in the preparation of matter as well as in securing a good advertising patronage of the paper.

Both of these gentlemen have our congratulations on the work they have done, both for their church and for the city of Greensboro.

Senators Agin Annexation.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, June 24—Today's session of the senate was taken up by the Newlands annexations resolutions, discussion on which question was resumed immediately after the senate convened. Senator Samuel D. McEnery, of Louisiana, secured the floor and is now speaking against the proposition to annex the Hawaii.

ON THEIR WAY TO SANTIAGO

Shafter and His Men Are Marching on the City.

THE SPANIARDS IN FULL RETREAT

A Great Battle Momentarily Expected—More Transports are Offered—The Troops Moving.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

On board despatch boat, off Jarragua, Thursday night—The advance portion of the American army has reached the edge of the tableland in which the harbor of Santiago lies and is now within seven miles of Morro Castle. The main body of the united troops of the Spaniards is now in full retreat toward Santiago. A surprise may be attempted by the Spanirds but no decisive engagement is now expected to occur for several days. Lawton's brigade, which rested last night at Demajayho was delighted to resume the march today at noon. An American flag is now flying here. The Spaniards retired before the advance of the Americans burning blockhouses behind them. Jarragua was abandoned by the Spanish under Linares so hurriedly they had no time to burn the town. Sharp brushes occurred during the day between several detachments. This evening the remaining troop ships attempted to land their cargo of troops but it was impossible to do so because of the heavy sea.

BLOODY BATTLE ANTICIPATED.

Washington, June 24—Adjutant General Corbin is expecting to receive at any moment the news that a great battle has been fought near Santiago.

It is known that fierce skirmishing between the soldiers at night has taken place but no dicisive battle has yet believed to have been fought. Reports received from Madrid say the American army has been met by the Spanish soldiers and repulsed. This report is not credited by army officials. Secretary of war Alger, states that he expects the capture of the City of Santiago to be a bloody victory. The desperate stand that the Spaniards have taken practically makes it necessary to annihilate them before the city will surrender.

READY TO BATTLE.

Washington, June 24—Advices from General Shafter indicate that the army will be ready to march tomorrow. All the heavy artilley has already been landed and the work today will be devoted to putting it in shape to be transported to Santiago. The troops are well and in the best of spirits. Severe fighting is reported to have taken place between the Cubans and Spaniards in the hills back of Baiquiri, northwest of Santiago. The Cubans are forcing the enemy back from the American landing place toward the city of Santiago.

AN OFFER OF TRANSPORTS.

New York, June 24—Offers will be made soon to the authorities at Washington of a large number of steamships for use as transports by various steamship companies.

MORE TROOPS MOVING.

Mobile, June 24—The First Regiment of Louisiana volunteers left this morning for Miami; the First Alabama will leave this afternoon. Governor Johnson has issued a call for four companies of colored volunteers.

TO KEY WEST.

Newport, Conn, June 24—The two sister torpedo boats Gwin and Talbot sailed from here this morning for Key West. They are members of the torpedo fleet ordered to Key West.

MORE TROOPS FOR SANTIAGO.

Washington, June 24—Orders have been issued by the war department for the remainder of the Thirty-fourth Michigan and Ninth Massachusetts volunteer regiments now in camp at Fall's church, Virginia, to proceed immediately to Newport News where they will embark on the auxilliary cruiser Harvard which is being prepared to go to reinforce General Shafter at Santiago. Two thousand cases of cartridges have been shipped from Camp Alger for the use of the troops that have been ordered to Santiago.

Superior Court.

The case of Henderson Reed vs the Southern Railway was the last case tried yesterday, for $2,000 damages. Recovered nothing.

The case being tried today is that of John W. Strocker and wife vs. the Aberdeen & Asheboro railway for $5,000 damages, for alleged insult to Mrs. Strocker by the conductor Leach on the above named road. Lawyers are arguing the case as we go to press.

Bits of Capital Gossip.

The fund for the Worth Bagley monument is now approaching $2,000. It is gratifying to know that the first of the new torpedo boats is ordered named the "Worth Bagley." A telegram from Congressman Pearson so states.

Four more telegraphers are expected by Adjutant General to leave here tomorrow for the Philippines, these being Carlton, Mengus, Killian and Perry.

Edward A. Johnson, a negro lawyer of Raleigh was today sworn in as clerk to United States District Attorney Bernard. The salary is $600.

It is the talk around camp that another captain of the regiment is to be court-martialed and that whiskey is the trouble in his case as in that already mentioned. It is also said that there will quickly be two vacancies, and that two second lieutenants may, by reason of ability, be made captains.

There are today exactly 100 Federal convicts in the penitentiary here. Many of these work in the shirt factory. Some work in the farm, or rather the garden. The latter is very fine. It contains 40 acres and Gardner Porton is certainly a past master of his art.

One of the closest personal friends of the governor said this morning that he was greatly worried by the episode at the executive office and that had he reached there ten minutes earlier no such thing would have happened. He said the governor had long had an idea that he would be attacked. It seems that he has had this notion these many years past. There seems to be no denial of the statements that he has a gun and a pistol in his office close at hand. Some one suggested today that possibly this shot gun is the one which the governor's negro messenger was armed with the night when Caldwell and Pearson broke into the railroad commission office some months ago, at midnight. Why in the world the governor has the idea that he will be attacked is a puzzle, but it appears to be set in his mind. This last affair will make the matter very prominent. A suit may result from it. Lawyers of prominence are being consulted in regard to the case.—Col. Olds Correspondence.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Madrid, June 24—The debate in the chamber of deputies yesterday's was marked with great disorder and scenes of the greatest confusion prevailed. SHAM BATTLE.

Chattanooga, June 24 — General Grant has issued orders to the various officers of his command relative to the sham battle in which the entire division will participate tomorrow.

City Ownership.

The campaign now going on in Durham and reported in these columns yesterday for city ownership of waterworks, gas, electric lighting, etc., has received an added impetus by the late decision of our supreme court in "Thrift vs. Elizabeth City." That decision holds that no town or city can grant to any private company the exclusive right to operate such franchises is void. From an interesting article by Prof. Frank Parsons, of the comparative cost of electric lighting under city ownership and private ownership we extract the following cost per lamp per year.

| | Private Ownership. | City Ownership. |
|---|---|---|
| Bangor, Me. | $150 | $48 |
| Lewiston, Me. | 182 | 50 |
| Elgin, Ill. | 266 | 43 |
| Fairfield, Ia. | 373 | 70 |
| Marshalltown, Ia. | 125 | 27 |

In the sixty cities given by Prof. Parsons, the average cost of electric lighting per year under city ownership was one-third what it had been under private ownership.—News-Observer.

Mr. P. Ketchman of Pike City, Cal., says: "During my brothers late sickness from sciatic rheumatism, Chamberlain's Pain Balm was the only remedy that gave him any relief." Many others have testified to the prompt relief from pain which this liniment affords. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Spain Wants Peace.

A Madrid correspondent says a prominent conservative politician says peace is an absolute necessity and further adds:

"War under the conditions we are waging means sheer ruin. Our colonial empire is irretrievably lost. In anticipation of disturbances, the government ought to disband and disarm the colonial army and embark it for home in installments.

"By continuing the war the government is committing a crime against the country. We must have peace at whatever cost. It is the only means of preserving the monarchy, averting a civil war and an appalling revolution."

Romolus Zig-Zag Linney seems to have won a Wanamaker victory.

The thermometer in the office of His Excellency at Raleigh on last Wednesday registered 160 in the shade.

Lillian Russell's desire for more notoriety and free advertising will be satisfied. She will gain it through the divorce court.

After all may not Secretary Long be a little sorry that he did not name one of his fleet scoutships after the Ithican University?

When the present "unpleasantness" shall have ended it may develope that General Miles scented a lieutenant generalship in Morro Castle.

Having on hand an unusually large number of cut cable ends General Blanco might find use for them in splicing some of his broken trochas.

The public is anxiously awaiting Doctor Sagasta's diagnosis of the case and desiring to know just what treatment the learned expert will prescribe for his sick patient.

Jo. Chamberlain seems to be a little piqued because he has failed to work his little alliance schemes successfully. The Secretary of Colonies is respectfully referred to the Honorable Marion Butler at whose feet he may be able to learn how to work any "alliance" scheme no matter how intricate.

Admirante Camara, in an inspiring haranque on board his old pot, Pelayo, to the officers before leaving for a visit to Carthagena, said:

"We shall not return to Cadiz till our flag is wet with blood."

Camara is perhaps a little immodest in his demands. If he manages to get across the ocean at all he should be congratulated, not to mention a pleasant trip and safe return to Cadiz. And then the old boy is too particular as to what kind of fluid shall be used when his old yellow rag is washed. It will be a source of sorrow to him no doubt that America is not so considerate of his wishes.

The report that North Carolinians had not received their just due when men were burning midnight oil that present and future generations might read in history of their glorious and "patriotic" deeds is not altogether true. Even the achievements of Tar Heels now living have been recognized and their full worth appreciated both within the state and beyond its borders. The good that may result from their laudable and praiseworthy efforts cannot be overestimated. Even this early good has already been accomplished. Persons in the far off Keystone state have read of some of North Carolina's illustrious sons. Every senator and representative of the Quakers who dared to raise his voice in favor of reform has been denied a re-nomination.

THE PRESS CONVENTION.

A Pleasant and Profitable Session in Waynesville.

Editorial Correspondence.

Waynesville, N. C., June 22.

Old members of the association say that a larger number of newspaper folk have not been gotten together than are in attendance here and certainly a more charming place to hold the convention could not have been found and nowhere could a warmer welcome have awaited it. The good people of Waynesville turned over the keys of the town to the visitors and gave them an illustration of true Tar Heel hospitality.

Other parts of the land of the sky have been more lauded, possibly, than Waynesville, though the latter is by no means unknown to story and song, but it may be doubted if there be any more delightful place to spend some days, whether from the point of view of comfort or scenery—two things essential to a happy holiday.

To right and left the mountains rise sufficiently high for the sun-capped summits to throw perpetual shadows, cool and deep as any quiet woodland lake, upon the low foothills and quiet coves at their bases. And even at mid-day, when the heat dances in the blue distances, the breath of the world-old peaks is cool and tonic.

The Haywood White Sulphur Hotel was selected for the home of the visitors, and a charming enough one it is, situated at the foot of Old Field Top, or Junaluska as it is more euphoniously if less commonly called, rising a good 6,225 feet into the ether. Then there are immense stretches of shadowy lawn, grass grown and well kept and wide verandas where one may always woo a breeze with success. Not the least of the charms is a courteous host and hostess. The water of the white sulphur springs provides all the zest needed for an excellent menu.

The convention this morning was well attended, the court house being filled with visitors and members of the association. The association was welcomed in a eloquent address by Mayor Ferguson to which Mr. London, of Pittsboro, responded in behalf of the visitors. Dr. Way spoke on the advantages of Waynesville as a health resort and his address was replete with wit and humor as well as with that common sense even more essential to such occasions. President Whitaker, of Winston, in his annual address made many suggestions that were worthy of close consideration by the body. Committees were appointed to advise as to certain business matters.

In the afternoon the association was driven to the top of Junaluska where the view was incomparably fine.

Paymaster Coming.

A paymaster from the war department left Washington last night for Raleigh to pay off the troops, the determination to send a paymaster from Atlanta having been reconsidered. Senator Pritchard secured the change. He says that war department officials show the utmost disposition to accommodate and that they were in ignorance of the situation until the matter was called to their attention.

Clerks and Salesmen.

Men who wear up-to-date shoes to try the Carolina Shoe Co's, $3.00, $3.50, $4.00 and $5.00 shoes. They are "warm numbers", S. B. Norris, Manager.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c. and $1.00 per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

If We Only Knew!

If all nursing mothers could only know the true worth of Mrs. Joe Persons Remedy, a world of suffering and trouble would be saved. It is the greatest medicine I ever tried in my life. I have a large family of children, and I do believe I am indebted to Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy for having raised them all. When anything is the matter with my children I give them the Remedy, and there is never any need to give them soothing syrups, paregoric and things of that kind. The Remedy keeps them well and healthy, especially when teething, and they never need anything else. One of my babies had sore eyes, so that the eyes had to be kept shaded all the time, and the Remedy cured her. I cannot say too much for it. If everybody knew what it would do, and try it, a world of suffering would be saved.

CAPTURE OF A VETERAN.

By the Commander In Chief of His Headquarters.

"Say, mister, have you seen a mean lookin little cuss with a blue suit an brass buttons on hangin raoun here this week?" said a tall woman to the clerk at a Lewiston hotel Friday.

"Don't know that I have. How mean does he look?" was the reply.

"He pertends to be a vitran," continued the woman regarding the clerk over her glasses, "an ginrally about Grand Army time he disappears from his wife's bed an board an goes off an licks the hull south. I want to see him. I want him to come home."

Up the corridors came the sound of laughter.

A party of veterans were telling tales of war.

A familiar voice smote upon the air. The woman's lips closed tightly.

"I tell you, comrades, I jes' enjoyed that air fight at Chancellorsville more'n I did the hull durned muss from fus to las'. You see, Gin'ral Jackson was off on to our lef' a-trampin like the very devil to outflank the Union lines. That air mornin my cap'n he sez to me, sez he, 'Jake, you take a detachment o' five men an go aout an see what Stonewall's doin! Ef you suspect—ef you suspect,' sez he—'that there's any kind o' sneakin er beatin aroun the bush goin on, you jes' lay low an kyhoot for the Union lines.' 'Well, sez I'"—

Just then a woman shoved through the throng and linked her arm in his.

The words died on his lips. The fight died out of his eyes. A spasm passed over his countenance that left it a sickly green, the color of the hide of a sour cucumber.

"Jabez," said the woman, "be you here a-lyin ag'in? What made you take that air hoss an drive him here to this G. A. R. spree? Hev you been a-drinkin? Hev you been a-forgettin of your commandment not to lie? Did you tell these gentlemen that as fur as you got to war was to Augusta, an thet you got so feared over there thet you was sick for three weeks? Gin'rul Jackson! You little lyin thing you! Did you tell the Grand Army men that you was drafted an thet they couldn't find you fer six weeks where you was a-hidin in the woods?

"Come home, Jabez—the caows and the pigs need you."

And the little old man in the blue coat looked up into the woman's face with a gray, misty, tearful look in his eyes. The glad light that had been in them was gone. His little bit of glory was at an end.

Poor old fellow—after all!—Lewiston (Me.) Journal.

BONAPARTE'S DAUGHTER.

The Princess Charlotte Spent Many Happy Months In America.

"Queen Julie never joined her husband, Joseph Bonaparte, the fugitive king of Spain, in this country," writes William Perrine in The Ladies' Home Journal, "but late in 1821 their daughter, the vivacious young Princess Charlotte, determined to console her father in his exile. She arrived at Philadelphia in the ship Ruth and Mary, commanded by Captain Mickle. The ship's wharf was covered with a crowd anxious to see her. Only 19 years old, of highly animated temperament and delighted at the ending of the 40 days' voyage, the young girl was in an ecstasy of pleasure. She waved her fur bonnet at the persons on the wharf with such careless delight that it fell from her hands over the ship's rail and into the river. In her transport of enthusiasm she snatched Captain Mickle's hat from his head, gayly placed it on her own and saluted her admirers anew.

"Joseph was highly pleased with Charlotte, whom he had not seen since she was 13, and tried to give her as much compensation as he could for the pleasures of the continental life she had left behind. He took her to Long Branch and Saratoga, but he soon discovered that her chief taste was for painting. At the old gallery of the Academy of Fine Arts in Philadelphia were exhibited several studies and landscapes from her brush."

Coal Formation.

It will be remarked that the deposits of anthracite are found in very mountainous regions. The difference between this hard and what are called the soft coals was explained to me by the late Professor William B. Rogers. When the contraction of the earth's surface took place by which the mountain regions of Pennsylvania and a few other parts of the carboniferous series were formed, these mountains were thrown up, turned over and twisted in such a manner as to cause the materials of vegetable origin of which coal is formed to become coked, or partly coked, under extreme pressure. It is due to that pressure and accompanying heat that the anthracite coals are hard and virtually free from bitumen; while, under other conditions, the bituminous or semibituminous coals are soft and more friable, containing more bituminous element. In some other parts of the earth's surface where coal is found the so called brown coals and lignites have not been subjected to the measure of heat under pressure sufficient to convert them into true coal.—Edward Atkinson in Century.

Where the Ticket Went.

In an elevated station on a rainy day, just before reaching the ticket chopper's box, a woman dropped her ticket. It disappeared as completely as though she had never had it. She looked around on the floor, but it was nowhere to be seen. It was very strange.

"Look in your umbrella," said the ticket chopper. She carried an umbrella, which was closed, but not rolled up. She turned it with the handle end down and the ticket dropped out on the floor. She smiled as she picked it up and put it in the box. The ticket chopper said nothing. He had seen this happen before.—New York Sun.

Stephen B. Griswold, law librarian of the New York state library, at Albany, who has just completed thirty years of continuous service, is the only person in the state capitol who has held office for so long a period. Manila must have a peculiar attractiveness for Lieutenant George N. Hayward, of the United States cruiser Baltimore. In a letter to a relative in Detroit he says: "My one hope is that we shall retain the Philippine group forever. It is worth all of China and a hundred Cubans, and the inhabitants desire it."

The Oxford Union, of which Mr. Gladstone was president in 1829, is to erect a memorial to the deceased statesman. It is to take the shape of a bust and old members are invited to subscribe.

Agricultural laborers in Lucerne, Switzerland, eat eight meals a day—the first at four o'clock in the morning, re-enforced by further refreshments at six, eight, ten, twelve, three, five, and seven. Some of these meals are but luncheons of cider and bread, but the daily bill of fare includes a substantial breakfast, dinner, and supper.

The président of Oberlin college was recently asked by a student if he could not take a shorter course than that prescribed by the institution. "Oh, yes," he replied, "but that depends upon what you want to make of yourself. When God wants to make an oak he takes a hundred years, but when he wants to make a squash he takes six months."

There is near Ballina, in Ireland, a little stone on the bank of a creek upon which is carved this interesting inscription, intended as a warning to travelers: "When this stone is out of sight it is not safe to ford the river."

More Stamp Troubles.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, June 23.—A suspension of money order business has only been averted by an agreement between the officials of the treasury and post office department to the effect that the law does not require stamps to be affixed to domestic money orders. It was also agreed that the additional charge for the value of the stamp shall be made at the time the order is issued.

Count Cossairi Presented.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, June 23.—Count Cossairi, the new Russian Ambassador, was formally received by the president this morning. Cossairi in presenting his letter of credentials said it was the intention of his government to have close relations with America, to whom Russia had so long been a close and warm friend. The president made an appropriate reply.

gives good blood. It is a nerve strengthener and restorer, the efficacy of which cannot be over-estimated; when it is learned that its absolute freedom from poisonous drugs or opiates, makes it safe for use in the hands of sick or inexperienced persons, there is an increased appreciation of it. JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA is a specific for impoverished or impotent nerves; it feeds the nervous system to high health, provides for physical and brain endurance, cheerfulness, happiness and energy.

Our thirty-six page illustrated book contains some interesting pages on Nerve Exhaustion. It is free for the asking. Quart bottle, $1.00.

See Ingram's new advertisement today.

Mrs. Geo. Kluttz, of Salisbury, is visiting Mrs. Arthur Jordan.

J. H. Petty, of High Point, was in the city today attending court.

Yesterday was a red letter day for the boys and girls of the First Presbyterian Sunday school. They spent the day under the trees at the Battle Ground and all report a pleasant trip.

The ice cream supper given last night by the ladies of the Baptist church was a success in all respects. A large crowd was present and everyone passed a pleasant evening. A neat little sum was realized.

The cooking contest at the Greensboro Hardware Company's will not be ended in time to announce the result in today's paper. There is a good deal of interest manifested and the little Misses are working faithfully for the prize.

Miss Sallie Nichols left today for her home in South Boston, Va., after a visit of several weeks to her cousin, Miss Ruby Glascock. Miss Sallie has a host of friends here who regret her departure and who will be glad, at any time, to welcome her again in their midst.

Lindau's cigar window, under the artistic touch of Mr. Jay Boone, has taken on a most patriotic appearance. The yellow kid, as Admiral Sampson, is waving an American flag and smoking a Havana cigar. The window is tastefully decorated and presents a most pleasing display.

Johnny Was Corn-ered

One Johnny McKay, a little colored boy about twelve years old, decided, it seems, to corner all the corn in South Greensboro and do the Leiter act on a small scale but in a different way from the original. He stole for awhile from Mr. Crutchfield in South Greensboro. He was proceeding splendidly and each day John's heart felt "Leiter," but soon supplies were cut off and he could steal no longer. He pondered much over the situation and finally hit on a scheme. He told Mr. Crutchfield's little boy if he did not give him some corn he would kill his goat. The little fellow was compelled to comply with John's terms and "shoveled" out the corn, but when John left the little fellow told of his trouble, and right here John's downfall began. Officer Scott was put on the case and the result may easily be guessed. Leiter kept his corner on wheat for a while and McKay is likely to keep his corner—in jail—for a while too.

The Confederate Veteran.

The May number of the Confederate Veteran is full of interesting incidents concerning North Carolina—in fact it is a North Carolina edition. It contains many excellent pictures of distinguished North Carolinians who were in the late war, and a number of beautiful and accomplished young ladies who are now interested in perpetuating the memory of the heroes who wore the grey. This number of the Confederate Veteran may be had at Stroud's cigar and news stand, McAdoo House, this city.

The New Duck Uniforms.

The first of the brown duck uniforms for the tropics have been exhibited in New York. The style, while adapted from that of the English army in Egypt, is more graceful. The jackets are fashioned after the English hunting jackets, with heavily plaited backs and wide belts, which are detachable. They are single breasted, with five buttons, and have two large pockets on each side protected by button flaps. In these pockets, where a hunter with a similar suit could carry a brace of birds, the soldier can if necessary carry a day's rations. The cuffs, shoulder straps and pocket flaps are of the color required to designate the arm of the service to which the wearer belongs—blue for the infantry, yellow for the cavalry, and red for the artillery. Another consideration of importance in the rainy climate to which the new suits are to go is that the material is steam shrunk, so that the wearers may wash their uniforms at any time and be able to get into them afterward.

Important Notice.

The Carolina Shoe company has just received the nobbiest up-to-date line of mens fine hand made shoes ever shown in Greensboro—$3.00, $3.50, $4.00 and $500. Every pair warranted. S. B. Norris, Manager.

The Post Office Building.

The question of building an addition to the public building here and otherwise improving it is again being agitated by Senator Butler. In the senate yesterday he gave notice that he intends to offer an amendment to the deficiency bill appropriating $50,000 for making the necessary improvements. It is patent to all that the Federal court room is too small to accomodate the crowd for whose benefit it was built. The senator would receive the hearty co-operation and thanks of nearly everyone in Greensboro if he would incorporate in his amendment a provision prohibiting the use of the coping around the building as a summer park.

The Lawn Party Tonight.

The ladies of the town seem to be exerting themselves this week to give our citizens attractive places at which to spend an hour or two pleasantly these summer evenings, when everybody loves to be out doors, especially with the accompaniments of bright lights, gay music, ice-cream and agreeable social intercourse. Another opportunity for such enjoyment will be afforded this evening (Friday) by the lawn party to be given in the yard of Mrs. W. A. Winstead on West Market street, by the ladies of West Market street church aid society. All come and have a good time and help the ladies.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Bad management keeps more people in poor circumstances than any other one cause. To be successful one must look ahead and plan ahead so that when a favorable opportunity presents itself he is ready to take advantage of it. A little forethought will also save much expense and valuable time. A prudent and careful man will keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house, the shiftless fellow will wait until necessity compels it and then ruin his best horse going for a doctor and have a big doctor bill to pay, besides; one pays out 25 cents, the other is out a hundred dollars and then wonders why his neighbor is getting richer while he is getting poorer. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Greensboro Loses Again.

Once more has the hoodoo of the Greensboro baseball team gotten in his deadly work and yesterday in Concord town our boys received their second defeat. The ratio of runs remains the same, this time being 7 to 1. The game was more exciting than was the one on the previous day. Greensboro secured her only run in her half of the ninth inning.

Mangum, Fisher and Oldham composed Concord's battery, while Tate and Crutchfield occupied similar places for the visitors.

The following is the score:

Concord—7 runs; 11 base-hits; 4 errors.

Greensboro—1 run; 7 base-hits; 4 errors.

I was seriously afflicted with a cough for several years, and last fall had a more severe cough than ever before. I have used many remedies without receiving much relief, and being recommended to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, by a friend, who, knowing me to be a poor widow, gave it to me, I tried it, and with the most gratifying results. The first bottle relieved me very much and the second bottle has absolutely cured me. I have not had as good health for 20 years. Respectfully, Mrs. Mary A. Beard, Claremore, Ark. Sold by C. E. Holton.

For a good while after the superior court met this morning there was practically no business transacted. The judge left the bench and took a seat down in the bar among the lawyers where for thirty minutes he amused them by telling jokes. The judge is a capital hand at telling jokes and enjoys it.
